Beginning the weekend of October 1 & 2, we are entering into a new phase with our tri-parish cluster with a new weekend Mass schedule. It is going to take a little getting used to and it may not be perfect, but the current needs necessitate such a change.

Beginning on Saturday, October 1 confession will be at 3 pm with Mass beginning at 4 pm. The Mass times on Sunday, October 2 will be at 8:30 am and 10:30 am.

Why the change in Mass times? So that two priests can cover Mass at all three parishes if need be. We are pleased that Fr. Scott Carl, having been appointed by Archbishop Nienstedt, to whom we are very grateful, will be assisting our parishes each Sunday beginning October 2. Fr. Carl teaches courses on Sacred Scripture at the St. Paul Seminary for men studying for the priesthood and will be a welcome addition to our parishes.

Let us continue to look to the Lord, who will not forsake us, during this period of transition.

St. Anne, pray for us!

Fr. Belden

Weekly Contribution

Please remember if you plan to attend Mass at either St. Thomas or Ss. Peter & Paul please put your weekly contribution in your St. Anne envelope or in an envelope marked St. Anne. All collections for our parish will be forwarded to us. Thank you.

Special Collection for Our Cathedral
September 24th - 25th

Our beautiful Cathedral of Saint Paul requires everyone's help! Please consider a sacrificial gift for this collection to assist with the remaining $6 million for the emergency exterior restoration as well as the need for $14 million to repair interior damage. Many thanks to all those who generously contributed to last year's collection to care for our Mother Church. All gifts received in this special collection will be designated and restricted to the restoration needs of the Cathedral.

Archbishop John Ireland relied on every Catholic's support to build this great monument of faith and so we need everyone's support now to preserve it for future generations.

Vocations Corner

How do you know what your vocation is?

In order for you to know how the Lord wants you to make a gift of your life, you must spend time with Him in quiet prayer. In this prayer, you are able to pour out your heart and express to Him all the desires of your heart. But more importantly, He wants to speak to you about His love and His plan for your life. It is also helpful to share with someone older and wiser (i.e. your parish priest, a Religious priest or Brother, etc.) about the promptings the Lord has been putting on your heart so that they might be able to help you understand and respond faithfully to the vocation you are being invited into by the Lord.

First Friday Eucharistic Adoration

Church of St. Anne

Friday, October 7th

8:30 am—7:00 pm

Please note the later benediction time.

Adorers are needed for the 6-7 pm hour. Please call the parish office if you are able to help.

"Five First Saturdays" Devotion

As a powerful means for our parish and families to grow in holiness, we will again have the the "Five First Saturdays" Devotion at St. Thomas the Apostle Church on Saturday, Oct. 1, 2011. There will be confessions from 7 AM to 7:45 AM. The rosary starts at 7:30 AM prior to the mass at 8 AM. Please join us in this beautiful devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Every day is Back to School—for we who wish to 'love the Lord with all our heart, strength, soul and mind.'

In the Beginning... (Week 27)

Chris's taste buds continue to form. I can taste sweet things now. My mom likes chocolate and so do I. A bright light can be seen by me through my mommy's tummy. I have eyelashes and eyebrows now. My fingerprints are fully formed. My toenails and fingernails are growing and may need to be clipped when I'm born.

Mom may be feeling like a "Soccer Mom" now that her uterus is the size of a soccer ball.

"How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!" Psalm 119:102

"The Lord gives sight to the blind..." Psalm 146:8
